The Pioneer Co-operative Trust Objective

This partnership will devote itself to raising Community aspirations through valuing Education and thereby embedding lifelong learning and lifelong earning in the Community that will enable regeneration and therefore benefit all members of the Community.

Why should I become a Member?

Do you agree with our main objective for establishing our Trust and share our values and principles?

Do you have ideas and suggestions that could help ensure the Trust achieves its aims and you would like your voice to be heard?

Would you like to be kept informed on all activities of the Trust and its partner organisations?

Would you like to benefit from special offers and 'members only' discounts at various outlets in the local area?

Each of our members has an equal right to put forward ideas and suggestions on how the Trust should be run and how it can help achieve its aims and objectives. You can do this by attending forum meetings or emailing and writing to the Pioneer Co-operative Trust.

Membership to the Trust is 'No Cost' and as a member your voice is heard and you have the right to vote to elect other members to represent your membership group. You will have the right to attend forum meetings held throughout the year and you will receive via email updates on the developments of the Trust and its partners.

Loyalty Discount Membership Card

As a thank-you from the Pioneer Co-operative Trust and to show its appreciation to you as a member, you will receive a Loyalty Discount Membership Card that can be used in various organisations. To find out the outlets and the promotions available please visit www.andrew-marvell.com. Terms and conditions apply.
